Re: dPi Teleconnect, LLC
Docket No. 2008-31-C

Dear Jocelyn:

dPi Teleconnect respectfully requests an extension for filing the testimony in the above-referenced docket which is due today. My client contact had a death in the family last week and is out of the office this week. As a result we have been unable to prepare the testimony and to provide the Office of Regulatory Staff with the information needed for its witness to prepare his testimony. As a result, we respectfully request that the Commission delay the hearing in this matter to a later date in early September or whenever a hearing date is available. We also request that the pre-filing deadlines be moved to coincide with the new hearing date. ORS is agreeable to moving the hearing date and the pre-filing deadlines. dPi's direct testimony is due today and we apologize for the late request. We appreciate your consideration.

Very truly yours,

ROBINSON, MCFADDEN & MOORE, P.C.
